THE CAMPAIGN IN MESOPOTAMIA 1914–18.

VOLUME I.

Based on Official Documents, compiled at the request of the Government of India, under the direction of the Historical Section of the Committee of Imperial Defence.

By Brig.-Gen. F. J. MOBERLY, C.B., C.S.I., D.S.O., p.s.c.

This first volume of the official narrative of the compaign of 1914–18 in Mesopotamia deals with the successful operations in that country up to and including the capture and occupation by the British of Kut-al-Amara in October, 1915. Commencing with chapters describing the physical and political conditions of the country and a brief account of the organisation and circumstances of the Army in India—which supplied the military forces employed—the narrative deals not only with the operations, but also with the policy which dictated them and the reasons which influenced the different commanders.
